Since 1964, SPD has been empowering people with disabilities to lead more independent and fulfilling lives. As a local charity, we support individuals of all ages with physical, sensory and developmental disabilities through more than 20 programmes and services.

From early intervention and therapy to vocational training, employment support, assistive technology, day care, educational and social services, SPD provides essential support that enables individuals with disabilities to thrive in school, work, and daily life. Your donation will help us continue creating opportunities for greater independence, inclusion, and quality of life.
